Dear Children of God,

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

We have been so blessed by the piano playing and musical leadership of Margie Moody over these last five years. Recently Margie decided to retire from weekly musical leadership. This is bittersweet. Bitter in our loss at Trinity and sweet in her new adventures with Jim and her family. Margie has agreed to stay on while we pray and seek our next musical leader. Thank you Margie!

Caroline Matheny Eynon (843) 509-1352 will chair our Search Committee and she is joined by Keith Brooks (843) 810-1677, Ann Goddin (703) 328-3896 and Kay Henry (843) 209-1806. If you have any insights, recommendations or thoughts regarding our music and musical leadership at Trinity, please feel free to speak to anyone of them, or me. The Advertising Flyer will say:

Trinity Church on Edisto Island is looking for an Organist/Music Director to begin as soon as possible.

Requirements include playing for and directing the Adult Choir and occasionally our Handbell Choir for our traditional service at 8:00am and raising up, leading, and playing in a band for our 10:00am blended service. The adult choir and band each require a 1-hour rehearsal per week. The adult choir or band does not rehearse or sing during the months of June-August. This is a part-time hourly position. A degree in music and three to five years' experience is preferred though all interested candidates will be considered. The pay range is $20,000 - $30,000 commensurate with ability, education and experience. Extra travel allowance and continuing education is provided.

Our historically registered sanctuary built in 1881 boasts a Three Manual Allen MDS-60 Organ and a Yamaha Clavinova piano CVP 405 with a graded hammer keyboard. We also have a Yamaha Clavino CFX Grand piano in our choir room, along with a set of Three Octave Malmark Handbells and a Kawai concert baby grand piano in our parish hall.

Please send your resume to the church at 1589 Hwy 174, Edisto Island, SC 29438 or email to office@trinityedisto.com. For questions, please contact the Rev. Wey Camp at (843) 869-3568.

Vestry News

Our Nominating committee, Gail Jernigan (843) 631-0433, Robert Pratt (803) 413-1096, and Tom Utsey (843) 475-9827 are praying and seeking a slate of nominees for the three vestry seats they will be vacating after this year. These are three year terms. In addition, they are praying and seeking a nominee to be a delegate to our Diocesan Convention, also a three year term. Please offer suggestions to the committee or let them know of your own willingness to serve.

Only adult members who are “members in good standing” are eligible for nomination. Our pledging Friends of Trinity, although active and much loved, are not eligible. “All Members over the age of 17 who, for the previous 12 months have a recorded pledge of time, talent and treasure will be considered “Members in Good Standing” and allowed to vote at Annual Meetings and Special Meetings.” (Trinity By-Laws Article IV, Section 4.2) In addition to the monthly vestry meeting, each vestry member is asked to coordinate and give leadership to a particular area of our life together as the Family of God. The idea is to ask an active member to prayerfully consider leadership. Please make your suggestions to one of the committee members.

“The Nominating Committee shall solicit from the Congregation nominations from the vacancies on the Vestry and shall distribute to the Parish, not less than 30 days prior to the Annual Meeting, a list of nominees. Other floor nominations shall also be allowed if a Member in Good Standing is nominated by two (2) other Members in Good Standing in writing with said Nominee’s name being submitted to the Church office in writing at least two (2) weeks before the Annual Meeting.” (Trinity By-Laws Article VI, Section 6.4)

The proposed nominating schedule will be as follows:

November 6th - The slate of nominees is presented in the November Trumpet and Sunday bulletin.

November 20th -Any additional floor nominations presented in the Sunday bulletin.

December 4th - Annual Meeting and Election at 9:30am, Meech Room.

Please note the time and place for our annual meeting and come join us!

Diocesan Announcements

The Diocesan Men's Summit will be held on Saturday, October 15 at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Summerville starting at 9am and finishing by 12:30pm. The Rt. Rev. Chip Edgar will be our speaker. The Bishop will be speaking on Faith in the Home. You have the option to attend virtually or in person.

REGISTRATION: For planning purposes we are asking for everyone who plans to participate in the 2022 Men's Summit to complete the online registration form. Please let us know if you will be attending in person or remotely. Go to <https://adosc.org/ministries-and-departments/mens-ministry/mens-summit> to register.

The Anglican Women of the ADOSC will hold their fall women's retreat October 21-23, 2022, at St. Christopher Camp and Conference Center. The Rev. Dr. Sandi Kerner who serves as the Director of Programs and Chaplain at St. Christopher will be the speaker. We pray that this retreat will be an opportunity for women to find rest and healing for body and soul.

“Take Heart!” is the theme. Jesus prepared his disciples to face into an unprecedented season of trial by speaking these encouraging words, even as his own death loomed very near: “I have said this to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation. But take heart, I have overcome the world” (John 16:33, ESV).

Love the Lord - Worship

We are almost at the most wonderful season of the year- fall. The temperature is usually moderate and the humidity usually lower than in the summer. If you are outside you take a deep breath, relax, and smile. It is so wonderful to breathe in that fall air.

Air, breathing, such important necessities of life. There are many hymns speaking of the air we breathe.

We know in the Gospels that Jesus breathed on His Disciples - representing the Holy Spirit who came to the 120 in the upper room as a rushing wind.

I read an article very recently on the name of God - Yahweh. Many people who have studied this say that God's name actually makes a sound like breathing. In and out when we breathe we say His name. From our first breath to our last we say His name. Breathing proves His every existence! This article is so very beautiful about God's care and love for us. Every breath is a praise to God, every song is speaking His name.

This is a great study that I hope to continue.

God's Blessings - Margie Moody, Pianist and Choirmaster

The Adult Choir Rehearses each Sunday morning at 11:15am in the Choir Room. If you enjoy singing and think you might like to join the choir, join us for a rehearsal and see what it is all about.

The Flower Guild would like to thank all those who have signed up to donate flowers for a particular Sunday in October/November. The calendar does still have a few open spaces for anyone else who would like to place flowers in the church in honor or celebration of a loved one.

As always the Flower Guild would welcome any new members who would like to join.

Many of our regular members and helpers are attending the biannual Fall Flower Festival at Grace Cathedral November 2nd - 4th. There will be carpooling from Trinity for the Wednesday afternoon session on the 2nd and the Friday morning session, on the 4th. Please register yourself if you are interested in going. Registration is online at www.gracechurchcharleston.org/flower-guild

We will eat a brown bag lunch in Grace's garden before the afternoon session and we will eat at a restaurant TBD after the Friday session. This is a great time of fellowship with other Flower Guilds, some from out of state and a wonderful learning experience. Please contact Linda Sanders if you are interested in carpooling.

Trinity Church is honored to be on the Edisto Island Historical Society's Edisto and Beyond tour October 22nd. The Flower Guild will decorate the church the day before the event.

“No Homework” Bible Study

YES!!! The “No Homework Bible Study will begin on Monday, October 17, 2022 at 9:45 a.m. We meet every Monday. Men and women are invited! We will gather in the parish library. Our class is led by the Holy Spirit. God’s Word is a treasure to be searched and revealed. It is a privilege to have the opportunity to do this together. Each week stands on its own, so come as you are able.

In recognition of the water of life received from the Word each week, the Monday No Homework Bible Study’s outreach ministry is the digging of wells through Life Outreach International/ Water for Life which provides life, bringing clean water to areas in third world countries where there is none. Our Bible Study has decided to make weekly offerings that will be added to an end-of-the-year gift. This is a tangible way we acknowledge the nourishment of the water of the Word in our lives.

Also, please continue to save the pop tops off beverage cans and soup/vegetable cans. We give them to the Ronald McDonald House who use the proceeds for various projects. There is a jar in the office where they can be deposited.

We hope you will join us each Monday as we discover the treasures God has to meet all of life’s challenges!

Contact facilitators: Sallie Currin (843-469-4498) or Martha Sparks (843-513-9606) or teacher: Penelope Wright (843-864-3657), if you have questions.

Cursillo

in the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina is now

SC Anglican Fourth Day Cursillo

What is Cursillo?

- “Cursillo” is Spanish for “a short course.” It is a movement of the church. Its purpose is to help those in the church understand their individual callings to be Christian Leaders.
- Cursillo is not designed to meet every spiritual need of every individual or group in the church. It is designed for the participant to “get away” from the daily routine, to listen to the Spirit and live for three days in Christian Community so that through study, worship, fellowship and introspection, one might sense the deeper calling of Christ in their lives to further service in His Church and know how to move forward on this journey.
- The overall goal of Cursillo is the goal of the Church: to bring all to Christ. This is done when informed, trained Christians set out with the support of others having a similar commitment. The Cursillo Weekend takes people who are already Christians and gives them foundational training based on the New Testament Christianity and helps them further discover their own “apostolic calling” based on their individual spiritual gifts!
- But most of all the Cursillo Weekend is about experiencing the unconditional Love of Jesus and Christian brothers and sisters in a way that you probably never have before. It is a taste of “Heaven on earth” and it is very often a life-changing event for participants!

The Summer has flown by according to the calendar, but we still have warm days ahead on Edisto.

We have one very special event on Saturday, October 8th. We remember Roger Woodhull. His funeral will be at 11:00am in the sanctuary followed by the traditional Trinity reception in the Meech room. Please contact me if you would like to participate. Opportunities include setting up, bringing food, serving during the reception and clean up.

On November 12th, The Edisto Ministerial Alliance will sponsor "Feeding the Multitudes" and Trinity Church will host this event. Our responsibilities and therefore, opportunities include setting up tables on Friday and providing servers on Saturday from 12-2. We need 4 volunteers to fix plates and 2 volunteers to help keep the tables clean and dining area in order. Following the dinner, we will need help with cleaning and putting the tables and chairs back. This event has been well planned with 9 churches participating so far. This will surely be a "Blessed Hit" for the community.

I would like to thank all members and "Friends of Trinity" for everything you do throughout the year, and if you are called to participate in either of these events, please contact me.

In His Blessed Name,

Connie Austin

FUND RAISIN' FOR A HOUSE RAISIN'

On Friday, September 9, 2022, the celebration for a new house for George and Pink was led by Rev. Mike Lumpkin. It was an evening filled with plenty of “liquid sunshine”, but it was truly a meaningful event.

Among the festivities was a presentation of a lap quilt, lovingly made by members of the Sowing Circle, and given to Pink by representatives Beverly Cummings and Jan Dossett. Many thanks to all that contributed their time to this project, but we especially want to thank Julie Murden, who purchased this quilt pattern. The pattern was called “Farmstand”. How appropriate!!

RIVERS FIRST AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMAN TO BE ORDAINED A PRIEST IN DIOCESE'S HISTORY

On Tuesday, September 13, 2022, The Rev. Henrietta Rivers was ordained to the sacred order of priests by Bishop Chip Edgar at St. John's Chapel, Charleston. The service was a glorious gathering, bringing priests and laity from around the Diocese to celebrate the occasion.

Henrietta holds a Master of Divinity degree from Trinity School for Ministry and has the daily privilege of sharing the Gospel of Christ to students at Porter Gaud School as the Middle School Chaplain. In addition to teaching and pastoral care at the school, Henrietta serves as an Intern at the Church of the Holy Cross, Sullivan's and Daniel Islands and also serves at St. John's Chapel, Charleston where her husband, The Rev. Matthew Rivers, is the Rector. Henrietta and Matthew have two adult children: Kariesha Richardson and Herbert Jordan Drayton. She serves on the board of the Anglican Women of South Carolina, and served on the Bishop's Search Committee for the Anglican Diocese of South Carolina.

If you look very carefully in this photo you will see our own Rector, Wey Camp, who attended the ordination celebration.

Peru Bishop Visits Trinity

We were blessed to welcome the Anglican Bishop of Peru, the Rt. Rev. Jorge Aguilar, his wife and family for a luncheon here at Trinity on Tuesday, September 20th. The luncheon was sponsored by the Missions Committee. Bishop Aguilar spoke to the group about the conditions in Peru post-covid. He shared the state of the churches and schools in Peru. Rev. Aguilar expressed his appreciation of the support and prayers from the people of Trinity. Being with him and his family was a blessing for all those who attended.

Serve Others - Mission Outside Trinity

On Tuesday, September 27, 2022, members and friends of the Daughters of the King traveled to Beaufort to present the staff of Hopeful Horizons all the articles collected for them. Hopeful Horizons is a safe house for battered women and children. This service project was led by the Daughters of the King.

No one is allowed to visit the house, but all the items collected will be taken safely to them. This was a fun outing to share with each other, but mainly a celebration of helping others to spread the word of Our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Thanks to all of you that contributed to this project.

NOT WITHOUT ITS DANGERS

A Personal Story by Anne Camp

Long-time scuba diver, Anne Camp, reveals where the real dangers lurk.

In scuba diving, the most important rule is to never hold your breath. Even with the disorienting bubbles all around and every breath sounding like Darth Vader, you must stay calm and breathe deep. For some people, a sense of isolation and claustrophobia sends them rushing with anxiety to the surface. But from my first dive at age 16, I absolutely loved being able to breathe underwater. It became a way for me to see beyond my diagnosis of Type 1 diabetes at an early age. For a long time, I had struggled, wondering, "Why did God give this to me?" Diving opened a whole new world.

I started to see how good and bad, light and dark lived side by side. Like when diving on a reef wall, to my left I might see the shallows brimming with beautiful stag corals, brain corals, sea anemones, and sea fans that offered protection to baby fish. The water shimmers with schools of yellow and black porkfish, silvery barracudas, and zebra-like spadefish. Yet on the other side of the reef is an eerie sheer, deep blue drop-off to thousands of feet below.

Diving into the unknown is not without its dangers. People often think immediately of sharks. But most sharks ignore and avoid divers. During an open-water dive, I spotted a great hammerhead swimming over me. He wasn't as enthralled as I was with him and swam off. Instead, what I found was that sometimes the greatest danger comes in forms you don't expect.

Over the course of my first summer diving, I was sexually abused by my 38-year-old scuba instructor, who was a mentor to me. When I finally told my parents, they confronted him, but he denied everything. Over the next few years, I tried to continue diving, but traumatic memories, dreams, and flashbacks turned my shame into a crippling depression. Even the smell of scuba gear made me feel panicked. I attempted suicide more than once. Before the abuse, I had wanted to be a marine biologist, but I gave up those career aspirations partly because I kept reliving the abuse. I stopped diving, finished school, and went on to become a neonatal intensive care nurse.

In 2008, still feeling broken well into my thirties, I went to Seacoast Church for the first time and felt welcomed and accepted. I joined a small group, got involved in missions, and became a long-term volunteer RN at the North Charleston Dream Center. But to really move forward, I knew I had to “dive” into a dark and murky place to learn to forgive the man who had abused me—to let go of the anger, shame, and guilt, after years of blaming myself. I had to come up for air many times and remove all the “cloudiness” from my mask... the sin, the bitterness, the victim mentality, so I could see the truth—how God saw me. Once I did this, the ocean called me back.

God has placed beauty here that you can find nowhere else. But you can only see it if you're willing to go into the dark.

Diving became a haven for me again, giving me time away from humanity to explore life with a new sense of freedom. Even when waves were rolling on the surface, or it was pouring rain, it remained peaceful underwater. And the deeper I went, the more peaceful it got. I would let the air out of my buoyancy jacket and sink into the depths, into a different kind of quiet: listening to the faint sounds of parrotfish munching on coral with their beaks, the crackling of snapping shrimp, and simply the movement of the water. I found myself often praying and thanking God for all the calmness and beauty and thinking of Psalm 46:10. “Be still and know that I am God.”

Sometimes in reaching the ocean floor, all I saw was white sand. But if I really looked hard, I could find stingrays, flounder, and maybe even an octopus camouflaged in the sand. I realized that just because I couldn't see God working in my life, didn't mean he wasn't.

Still, diving into deep waters can be scary. We don't know what we'll find. I've dived over shipwrecks like the British cargo ship, Thislegorm, in the Red Sea, sunk in 1941 by German bombers. I've seen boots, jeeps, and other debris on the sea floor, and it was haunting. Swimming through the rooms of the shipwreck, I wondered: Who was on this ship? Were they scared? Were they praying? Were they right with God? It was the same sea, surrounded by red cliffs on both sides, that Moses parted in faith, believing that once he and the Israelites took those first steps into the water, they would cross unharmed. I wanted that kind of faith to step into the unknown.

I've found night dives to be a sort of physical way to stretch my faith. Although sometimes creepy, they are some of the most amazing ones I've done. When I turn off my flashlight, willing to face the darkness, suddenly I see thousands of tiny bioluminescent plankton sparkle and flash around me. God has placed beauty here that you can find nowhere else. But you can only see it if you're willing to go into the dark.

Scuba diving has helped me find ways to forgive and find beauty in this life, in my family, and in my faith. In Key Largo, Florida, there is a 9-foot tall, underwater statue called, The Christ of the Abyss that stands in crystal blue water. Placed there in 1965, it shows Christ with his hands raised high. It reminds me that Christ is present everywhere, even in the deepest depths. No matter where I go, he is with me.
